The Global Health Security Agenda and FAO, the way forward

Henk Jan Ormel, Jim McGrane and Juan Lubroth

Senior Veterinary Policy Advisor of the Chief Veterinary officer of FAO
FAO’s mandate

Achieving food security for all

FAO’s three main goals are:

• the eradication of hunger, food insecurity and malnutrition;

• the elimination of poverty and the driving forward of economic and social progress for all;

• the sustainable management and utilization of natural resources, including land, water, air, climate and genetic resources for the benefit of present and future generations.
What is GHSA?

GHSA pursues
a multilateral and multi-sectoral approach to strengthen both the global capacity and nation’s capacity to prevent, detect and respond to human and animal infectious diseases threats whether naturally occurring or accidentally or deliberately spread.
FAO’s contribution to GHSA

• Expertise on food, agriculture and environment
• Human – food – animal - environmental interface
• A United Nations organization with 95 national offices, 12 regional and sub-regional offices and 5 liaison offices worldwide
• Regional and national register of FAO experts
• Coordination role
• Connection with other global projects, initiatives, frameworks and agenda’s
FAO and GHSA

FAO : 194 Member States
